Hi Miranda,

I will bring a laptop and projector, so you will have the ability to project content to share. I think an overview of basic information is a great way to begin the dialogue.

Thanks again, Amy

Hi Amy,

Thanks for the information. I think I could cover a brief overview of our decision and next steps in 30 minutes or less. Since you may have a better understanding of how many questions folks may have, I'll leave it to you on whether you would like to add extra time to that for Q&A. I won't make a formal presentation, but I think I will go ahead and put together some powerpoint slides with basic information (if I'll have the ability to display them), because I think visuals are always good at helping to explain things.

Hi Miranda,

Thanks for your willingness to have a discussion with the group, I appreciate it. The meeting will be at the Lacey Community Center from 9:30 – 12:00. I'm finalizing the agenda now – how much time would seem appropriate for a discussion on the TMDL? And do you anticipate a formal presentation from you or something else?

Thanks again,

Amy

Hi Leanne,

Thanks for the invite. I do think it would be a good time for me to meet with the group and go over our decision and next steps. As far as logistics, could you or Amy provide info on the meeting time, agenda, and how long of a time you were thinking I would have to talk?

Thanks,

Subject: Deschutes Watershed Group Meeting

Hi Miranda,

The Deschutes Watershed Group (which is currently facilitated by Amy Hatch-Winecka, at the Thurston Conservation District, copied on this email) is having a meeting on September 20th. Are you, or someone from your office, available to come and discuss the decision rational and next steps for the Deschutes TMDL?

The meeting will be in Olympia.

Please let us know your thoughts.

Thanks,

Leanne
